I. GENERAL INFORMATION

Kristu Jyoti College, the Studentate of Theology of the Salesians of Don Bosco in Bangalore, traces its origin to October 26, 1967. His Eminence Cardinal D.S. Lourdasamy, the then Archbishop of Bangalore, blessed the college building in the presence of Rev. Fr. Aloysius Ricceri SDB, the then Rector Major of the Salesians of Don Bosco, on February 24, 1968, thereby officially inaugurating the college.

The College serves the different Salesian Provinces of India, as also students belonging to other Religious Orders and Congregations and dioceses. Kristu Jyoti College has been affiliated since 1981 to the Faculty of Theology of the Pontifical Salesian University, Rome, conferring the Bachelor's Degree in Theology (B.Th.).

The Church pays special attention to the formation of her ministers. Church directives require that priests undergo a minimum of four years devoted to an intense and specifically priestly formation. These directives are implemented at this college, with particular emphasis on the Salesian dimension, traced out by St. John Bosco.

A programme of theological formation involves far more than mere intellectual input, assimilation and reflection. Among other things, it calls for the formulation of projects of pastoral action involving practical strategies pertaining to processes, methods, verification and rectification, all in the light of the Gospel and the signs of the times.

From the very outset, Kristu Jyoti College has been deeply involved in and committed to the uplift and welfare of the specific locality where it is situated, and of the city of Bengaluru as a whole. This involvement and commitment assumed different thrusts in the concrete.

With a view to a more organised and articulated service to society, the Social Service Guild of Kristu Jyoti College (SSG) was constituted as a registered society on December 12, 1973. It has been functioning ever since and grown from strength to strength. One red-letter day which marks the annals of this guild is the event familiarly styled: "Freedom at Midnight", when, on November 6, 1975, thanks to the intervention of the members of the Social Service Guild of Kristu Jyoti College, 40 families of bonded labourers in Chikka Basavanapura, (men, women and children), were set free. The SSG accompanied these families during the difficult journey from bondage to freedom, and helped them set up a Cooperative Society. Currently, the SSG is involved in ten of the villages neighbouring Kristu Jyoti College (Anandapura, Bhattarahalli, Chikka Basavanapura, Halehalli, Janata Colony, Jyoti Nagar, R. M. S. Colony, T.C. Palya, Akshay Nagar, Priyanka Nagar and Swatantara Nagar). Among the different programmes which the SSG has articulated in its response to the concrete challenges are: scholarship programme for the children, crèches, tailoring centres, the formation of self-help groups and animation programmes.

At about the same time, the students of Kristu Jyoti College began their involvement in yet another sector, viz., the care of the marginalized youth (Youth at Risk), particularly street urchins, in the city of Bengaluru. What began as a tentative, fledgling initiative in June 1979, grew by leaps and bounds and still figures prominently in the vision and involvement of Kristu Jyoti College. It is to the credit of Kristu Jyoti College that, even now, the youth workers in six important centres dedicated to the welfare of street urchins in Bengaluru, viz., Bosco Mane, Bosco Yuvodaya, Bosco Yuvakendra, Bosco Sumanahalli, Bosco Yuvakara Grama and Bosco Nilaya, are practically all past pupils of Kristu Jyoti College.

A third sector of the involvement of the students of Kristu Jyoti College concerns the service rendered in the different parishes of Bengaluru. The students have been serving in 21 different parishes on a week-end basis, with a special focus on faith formation and youth animation. As a response to a new challenge, the students of Kristu Jyoti College have recently taken up the pastoral care of the migrant and professional students in our locality.

It is the goal of Kristu Jyoti College to realize the formation of priests for India by integrating intellectual formation with spiritual growth and pastoral effectiveness.

With a view to a more qualified service to the Church in India, Kristu Jyoti initiated in 1992 - the year of the Silver Jubilee of its foundation - the Second Cycle of Theological Studies. Since 1995, the college has been aggregated to the Faculty of Theology of the Pontifical Salesian University, Rome, and offers a Master's Degree in Theology (M.Th.) with specializations in Faith Education and Youth Ministry.

The College has a well-equipped Department of Faith Education and Youth Ministry known as Visvadeep. The department aims at qualifying the students of theology, as well as others, in the fields of Faith Education and Youth Ministry. The department also offers Audio-Visual Programmes in the above and related fields. Since 1984, this department has also been conducting a seven-month Diploma Course in Faith Education and Youth Ministry.

The College subsequently began a three-month Certificate Programme in Theology, primarily as a feeder-course of theological initiation for those wishing to participate in the Diploma Course in Faith Education and Youth Ministry, for which a basic knowledge of theology is an essential requirement.

As a further response to a pressing need, Kristu Jyoti College has also begun conducting a two-year course in Philosophy from June 1996. Another initiative of the college is the three-month Course on Liturgical Animation, which commenced in June 1998. From 2010 the college began to offer a M.Th. with specialization in Liturgy.

Kristu Jyoti College has a well-equipped library with around 85,354 volumes. The library subscribes to more than 200 philosophical and theological journals from India and abroad. The library has a small but growing collection of Bible videos. The library has been computerized and provision has been made for its progressive expansion.

The Students' Council ensures the effective and responsible participation of the students in the educative process. It is a body of representatives, directly elected by the students, which acts as the liaison between the students and the staff, and has well-defined functions in keeping with the Statutes and Regulations of Kristu Jyoti College.

The College publishes a journal: Kristu Jyoti - a quarterly with a three-fold orientation: youth pastoral, theological and catechetical. In keeping with the charism of the Salesian Congregation, the journal focuses its attention on youth. Various aspects of the Christian faith and their bearing on the lives of young people are studied. Practical suggestions are offered on the methodologies to be adopted in educating young people to the faith in a manner that is both relevant and scientific.

As part of further development, from 2016, on the occasion of the Golden Jubilee celebrations of the College, it has extended the course in Philosophy to a three-year Bachelor's Degree Course from IGNOU and began a three-month certificate course in Pastoral Communication.

The College also publishes: Bosco Udayam, a periodical which aims at building up communication among the Salesians of Asia and interpreting the spirituality of St. John Bosco in the light of the problems and possibilities of modern Asia with special attention to its youth.

The College has a publishing centre of its own: Kristu Jyoti Publications, which manages the journals and organizes the publication of books, especially those authored by the staff.

Kristu Jyoti College is inserted within the religious congregation of the Salesians of Don Bosco; and as such, has its identity and realizes the values which characterize the Salesian consecration and mission the world over.

In the academic field, the relationship between Kristu Jyoti College and its aggregating body, the Salesian Pontifical University, Rome, is regulated by the Statutes and Regulations, approved by the Dicastery for Catholic Education, and the Conventio drawn up between the College and the Salesian Pontifical University, Rome.

 - (iii) Three passport-size photographs and ten stamp-size photographs.

(2) Attendance at Class

- (1) Every candidate is obliged to attend all the classes of every prescribed subject. The professor, at the time of evaluation of any subject, will take into account also the attendance at class of the candidate concerned.
- (2) A candidate who has been absent for 50% or more of the classes in any subject, has to repeat that particular subject.
- (3) A candidate who has been absent for more than one third and less than 50% of the classes in a particular subject, loses the right to appear for the examination in the subject concerned, during that session. However, this is not applicable for the course on Audio-Visuals and Pastoral Ministry. Full attendance is required for the same.

3. Seminars and Written Assignments

- (1) All written assignments should be computer-printed. They are to be submitted to the professor together with the soft copy of the final draft.
- (2) During the B.Th.Course, the students are expected to submit a minimum of five written assignments (scientific papers) each in the courses of the first two years; and four assignments during the third year of Theology (besides the seminars and the final written dissertation). The length of the written assignments shall be from ten to fifteen pages.

- (3) For the B.Th.Course, two seminars have been prescribed, one each in Sacred Scripture and Systematic Theology. The seminar involves:
 - (i) Attendance in all the sessions;
 - (ii) Personal reading and study of the topic;
 - (iii) Exposition (10-15 min.) and discussion in the group (10-15 min.) together with the professor;
 - (iv) Presentation of a written paper (6-10 pages)
 - (v) It is forbidden to submit the same assignment to fulfill the academic requirements of different courses.
 - (vi) The students are expected to follow the norms of scientific methodology taught in the college.

4. Examinations

(1) Frequency of Examinations for the B.Th.

- (i) There are three ordinary sessions of examinations, one at the end of each trimester.
- (ii) When visiting professors are involved, extraordinary sessions of examinations may be held soon after the course after the interval of a day (which may also be a Thursday or a Sunday) for preparation.

(2) Repetition Examination

- (i) Three times a year repeat sessions of examinations are held for those who have failed to make the grade.
- (ii) The repetition examination will generally be a written examination. Exception may be made in individual cases in consultation with the principal.

(3) Mode of Conducting Examinations for the B.Th.

Examinations are conducted in one of the following ways:

- (i) Only an oral examination lasting not less than 15 minutes in subjects of more than two credits (one credit is equivalent to twelve periods), and not less than 10 minutes in the others.
- (ii) Only a written examination lasting 2 hours in subjects of 3-4 credits; 1½ hours in subjects of 2-2½ credits; 1 hour in subjects of 1 credit or 15 hours.
- (iii) In the case of courses offered by resident professors, the students can choose the mode of examination by absolute majority (half + 1).
- (iv) An oral or written examination carries 60% of the marks with the rest (40%) allotted for written assignments.

(4) Mode of Conducting Examinations for the M.Th.

The M.Th. examinations can be held in one of the following ways:

- (i) Class presentation of the topic and an examination lasting not more than 15 minutes on topics covered (other than what has been presented).
- (ii) Class presentation on a suggested topic and a scientific paper on the same.
- (iii) Five short scientific papers on the topics treated in class integrating suggested readings and personal reflection.
- (iv) One scientific paper which covers all the important topics, integrating suggested readings and personal reflection.

- (v) Any other modality left to the discretion of the professor, in consultation with the HOD of the Department, provided the workload involved does not exceed the above.
- (vi) Ordinarily the examination/assignment is done at the end of the Trimester. In case an examination/assignment is not done within the specified deadline, the principal may grant a further extension till the end of the following trimester in consultation with the HOD and the records will be submitted to the office of the registrar. In exceptional cases the same authority may allow the student to do the examination/assignment when the self-same course is once again offered by the department.

(5) Results

Results will be available in the college website two weeks after the last examination of the trimester or the mark list will be distributed in the class room.

(6) Failures

Any candidate (M.Th., B.Th., Philosophy) who fails in the same subject twice is obliged to repeat that course. After repeating that course, if the candidate fails the third time also, he/she cannot continue that course in this college. The failure will also be expressed in the mark sheet. This applies to both the clerical and the non-clerical students. The third time the mode of examination will be written and if there is a problem in assessing it, the paper will be evaluated by more than one professor.

- (7) A fee of Rs. 200.00 will be levied on a candidate for every examination that has to be repeated.

5. Evaluation

18	Passmark.	(Pass)
18-20	Just enough	(Third Class)
21-23	Average	(Second Class)
24-26	Good	(Higher Second Class)
27-29	Very Good	(First Class)
30	Excellent	(Distinction)

6. The Bachelor's Degree in Theology

In order to be eligible for the qualifying examination for the B.Th., the candidate should in the course of his/her theological studies, have passed in all the subjects individually and have secured an average mark of not less than 70%. A candidate who has failed twice in the same subject during the First Cycle of Theology is not eligible for the B.Th degree.

The B.Th. examination itself comprises the following:

- (1) Comprehensive examinations held on three days each lasting for a period of twenty minutes, before a panel of two examiners, each of whom will interrogate the candidate for a period of ten minutes. These oral examinations will be based on a thesarium of theology which include themes embracing the different fields of theological reflection such as: Sacred Scripture, Systematic Theology, Moral Theology, Pastoral Theology, Liturgy and Church History. The allotted themes for each day are as follows: Day 1- Sacred Scripture; Day 2 - Systematic Theology; Day 3 - Pastoral Theology.
- (2) During the final trimester, the candidate will be required to write a dissertation on a theological subject whose length shall be between twenty five and thirty pages under the guidance of a professor. In elaborating the same, the candidate shall be required to adhere to the canons of scientific methodology.

- (3) The marks for the B.Th. examination will be calculated out of a total of thirty. In computing this total:
 - (i) Fifty percent of the marks will derive from the average of the marks obtained for the subjects covered during the First Cycle of Theological Studies;
 - (ii) Thirty percent of the marks will derive from the oral comprehensive examination; and
 - (iii) Twenty percent of the marks will derive from the written dissertation.

7. The Master's Degree in Theology

- (1) Every student is required to write a dissertation of 100-120 pages (minimum 100 and maximum 120 from General Introduction to General Conclusion) on a subject dealing with his/her specialization under the guidance of a professor and defend it. By the end of the second trimester, the candidate shall present the theme of the dissertation, the choice of guide and the detailed outline of the theme for approval. Three copies of the dissertation, countersigned by the Guide, shall be submitted on or before the appointed day.
- (2) The students are required to hand in 3 copies of their dissertations (may be spiral bound) signed by the Guide together with the soft copy and the tools used for the empirical research on the day appointed together with the research tools or (for those who have not been able to keep the deadline) at any other time. In the latter case, after the lapse of at least one month from the submission of the dissertation, the Registrar will fix the date of the defence and intimate the same to the candidate concerned. The defence of the dissertation will not be scheduled during the period when the college remains closed, either for the Christmas or the summer vacation.
- (3) The candidates shall undergo an oral examination on the dissertation before a commission of two examiners.

The examination shall last for a period of 45 minutes, during which, a period of 15 minutes will be allotted to the candidate to present the theme; subsequently each examiner shall interrogate the examinee for a period of 15 minutes.

- (4) After the oral examination on the dissertation, the candidate is expected to make the necessary corrections and implement the proposals and observations made by the Guide and Co-Examiner and submit four copies of the dissertation (3 hardbound and one xeroxed on both sides), together with the soft copy to the Registrar's Office, duly signed by the Guide and the Co-Examiner.
- (5) The marks for the M.Th. examination will be calculated out of a total of 30. In computing this total, equal weightage shall be given to:
 - (i) The average of the marks obtained in the subjects of the M.Th.
 - (ii) The average of the marks obtained for the evaluation of the final written dissertation.
 - (iii) The average of the marks obtained for the oral defence of the dissertation.
- (6) Any student who fails to submit the dissertation on or before the appointed day, shall be allowed a further grace period of two years, failing which, s/he shall have to repeat the entire procedure, beginning with the choice of the theme.

0108b The Gospel of Matthew (3 ECTS/2 Credits)

Fr. Thottumkal Shabu Joseph SDB

i) Synopsis

This course aims at providing a basic acquaintance with the First Gospel through the search for special literary features and theological traits of Matthew. At the outset it seeks to give explanation of the introductory topics like authorship, place and date of writing. We make a theological and exegetical reading of the text on a deeper level, keeping in mind the structure proposed by Matthew. The central theology is based on the essential aspects of the Covenant: the Rejection of Old Israel and the Election of New Israel.

0108c The Gospel of Mark (3 ECTS/2 Credits)

Sr. Vakayil Jamesy CTC

i) Synopsis

This course is designed to provide the students with a comprehensive understanding of the Gospel of Mark. The biblical methodology that we use here is Narrative Criticism. With this methodological tool, the course tries to read through the Gospel of Mark, taking it as a single text. It would enable the student to be attentive to the responses that the Gospel generates in the reader while reading it. Thus this course tries to bring out the kerygmatic meaning of the Gospel of Mark.

(5 ECTS/3 Credits)

Fr. Koroth Sivy SDB

i) Synopsis

The seminar introduces the student to the great phenomenon of migration taking place in the world particularly with reference to the internal migrations in India among the youth of the country. The student will be encouraged to approach the issue of migration very proactively and consider it a God-given opportunity for evangelisation and pastoral care of the young. Each student is expected to do empirical research on one of the aspects of youth migration in their respective states and propose pastoral initiatives that could be taken to meet the challenges raised by such migration issues.

4) Liturgical Prayer (3 ECTS/2 Credits)

Fr. Thoppil Anthony

i) Synopsis

The course on liturgical prayer studies the liturgical prayers or the euchological texts of the Roman Missal in detail. It includes the study of the history of the evolution of the liturgical books containing the prayers and the different steps for understanding a text. The different steps include nine questions to be answered: What is the exact text being studied, what is the meaning of the text, its historical identity, the communicative and pragmatic identity of the text, how has this text evolved historically through liturgical use, Its literary identity, the contextual identity, the theological value of the text; and what is its new shape (translation) in a world that is culturally different from the one in which it originated.

P 0305 Post-Modernism and Latest Trends in Western Philosophy
(3 ECTS/2 Credits)

Fr. Sekar Sebastian

i) Synopsis of Post-Modernism

Recent years have witnessed radical changes in our social and political existence, with traditional ideas and ways of living increasingly being called into question. Such questioning has led to a crisis of uncertainty characteristic of 'Post-Modernism', most usefully thought of as an elastic critical category with a range of applications and potential understandings. Our attempt at this course would be to show how Post-Modernism has raised a new epistemological consciousness on the multiplicity of sources of knowledge and meaning of reality. We aim at presenting the post-modern view on history as an invitation to a more comprehensive review of history of individual country and of the world.

ii) Synopsis of Latest Trends in Western Philosophy

This course aims at the exposition and study of current Western philosophical themes and trends of thought. Going a step beyond the traditional understanding of philosophy, it analyzes the latest methods and processes of intellectual output in the context of various new age philosophies.

(10) Dissertation and Comprehensive Examination

During the final trimester, the student will be required to write a dissertation on any topic related to philosophy or its allied subjects whose length shall be between twenty five and thirty pages (double-spaced) written under the direction of any one of the professors of the faculty. In elaborating the same, the student shall be required to adhere to the canons of scientific methodology. Every student should submit to the Registrar's office two copies of the dissertation.

A final and comprehensive examination in philosophy will be held in the final trimester, which will last for a period of thirty minutes, before a panel of three examiners, each of whom will interrogate the student for a period of ten minutes. This examination will be based on some major themes of philosophy taken from the six main treatises of philosophy, History of Indian philosophy and History of Western Philosophy. Before a student appears for the comprehensive examination, s/he should pass in all philosophical and allied subjects taught during the duration of the course, and s/he should submit all the assignments, including the dissertation.

(There will be a term paper per trimester, except in the 6th trimester).

VIII. DIPLOMA COURSE:
FORMATION OF FAITH EDUCATORS AND YOUTH MINISTERS

Diploma in Formation of Faith Educators and Youth Ministers

(1) The Aim of the Course:

This course aims at the formation of faith educators and youth ministers at the diocesan, parish, congregational and community level to respond effectively to the emerging challenges of the pluralistic contexts of today. It includes the spiritual, the intellectual and the human formation of the participants in a community environment

The Structure of the Course:

The diploma programme is divided into three phases.

(2) Phase I: Basic Theology FOR FAITH FORMATORS & Youth Ministers

1) Articulation of Phase I

This Phase aims at equipping the participants to express and formulate their experience of life on a twofold level:

On the more general human level of philosophical reflection, where the focal points can be broadly spelt out as: God, the Human Person and the World. This course treats of all the basic dimensions of the Real, considered in its integrality and would include a study cum reflection on the following issues: Knowledge, the Real the Human Person, World and Society.

On the more specific level of theological reflection where the course treats of God's self-communication and its implications: God's Word, Sacred Scripture, (Revelation, Trinity, Christology, etc.).

The response to this communication, both on the part of the human person in particular and the community in general (Faith, Theological anthropology in all its implications, Christian life) and finally, the articulation of this experience in the life of the believing community (Ecclesiology, Liturgy, and the sacraments).
